MODLITWA W INTENCJI ŻOŁNIERZY

Pamiętajmy o naszych żołnierzach służących w Iraku i Afganistanie i nie tylko tam. Módlmy się o pokój w świecie i łaskę ukojenia bólu i smutku dla tych, którzy stracili swoich po polsku.

NIEDZIELA PALMOWA – Mk 14:1-15:47 - Ewangelia Meki Panskiej.

Wszyscy znamy historie Quo vadis. W Rzymie trwa wielkie przesładowanie prowadzone przez Nerona. Piotr, za namową wiernych, uchodzi z miasta. Gdy zmierza via Appia na południe, spotyka Jezusa udającego się w przeciwnym kierunku. Pyta Go: Quo vadis, Domine?, „Dokąd idziesz, Panie?”. Jezus odpowiedział mu: „Idę do Rzymu, żeby ponownie umrzeć”. Piotr zrozumiał, wraca i ponosi mecenstwo za Chrystusa na krzyżu, według tradycji głowa w dół. Historia Quo vadis powtarza się również dzisiaj. Jezus idzie, by ponownie cierpieć i umierać w każdym mieście i miejscu, gdzie ktoś jest prześladowany, gdzie człowiekowi zagrażają niebezpieczeństwa i śmierć. Dzięki Bogu także dzisiaj nie brak odwanych uczniów i uczennic, którzy nie uciekają z tych miejsc, lecz pozostawiają lub powracają, aby cierpieć wraz z Chrystusem, czasem nawet aż po mecenstwo śmierć. Ale historia Quo vadis ma znaczenia także dla nas, którzy nie żyjemy w tak dramatycznej sytuacji. Kiedy Jezus rozpoczął swoją ostatnią podróż do Jerozolimy, która miała zakończyć się Jego śmiercią, jeden z apostołów powiedział do pozostałych uczniów, którzy się wahali: „Chodźmy także i my, aby razem z Nim umrzeć”. Z tym uczuciem w sercu każdy prawdziwy wierzący powinien rozpoczynać Wielki Tydzień. Ale umrzeć dla grzechu, żeby zmartwychwstać do nowego życia podczas Wielkanocy.

PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

The Passion of Christ is not simply a record of Jesus' suffering and death. It is a process through which all of us must go, indeed, are privileged to go. The reason we undertake the annual Lenten pilgrimage is to get somewhere. Easter is that somewhere, but there is no Easter without Jesus' passion. Neither is there an Easter in our lives without our sharing in that Passion. But to what sort of passion are we summoned? Are we to be betrayed, abandoned by friends, condemned, and put to physical death? For some of us, the answer may be yes. But for all of us, the passion we are called to share mirrors Jesus' passion in a way that, while not so concrete, is nonetheless very real. We are called to share the passion of letting go of selfish desires, of grasping, of being pretentious, of wearing masks. The Passion of Christ calls us to become vulnerable as Jesus was vulnerable, to wear our hearts on our sleeves, to forgive rather than to seek revenge, to call out resolutely for wholeness and not for division, and to give ourselves over completely to life.

Of the Passion accounts, Mark's is the most concrete, the most blunt. It is unadorned tragedy. Thus, it is all too easy for us to become overwhelmed or blinded by it, to be unable to look beyond the events it relates with the eyes of faith. The Passion is a tragedy, but it is also a story of glory. That is why we read the Passion today, the first day of the week we call "holy."

The Passion of Jesus Christ sets the tone for all that takes place this week: the reconciliation of sinners, the commemoration of the Passover and the first Eucharist, the veneration of the cross, the expectant vigiling, the welcoming and initiation of the elect, the bright light and overwhelming joy of Easter. The Passion of Jesus Christ leads us to all these. The Passion of Jesus Christ enables us to recognize God present in the humiliations and failings of life. The Passion of Jesus Christ makes any passion we may undergo "holy."
